How to Save

Your Eyes Try This Free Prescription

Do your eyes give you trouble? Do you already wear eyeglasses or spectacles? Thousands of people wear these "windows" who might easily dispense with them. You may be one of these, and it is your duty to save your eyes before it is too late. The eyes are neglected more than any other organ of the entire body. After you finish your day's work you sit other organ of the entire body. After you finish your day's work you sit down and rest your muscles, but how about your eyes? Do you rest them? You know you do not. You read or do something else that keeps your eyes busy; you work your eyes until you go to bed. That is why so many have strained eyes and finally other eye troubles that threaten partial er total blindness. Eyeglasses are merely crutches; they never cure. This free prescription, which has benefited the eyes of so many, may work equal wonders for you. Use it a short time. Would you like your eye troubles to disappear as if by magic. Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil is a Thing Long Desired.

Every one knows the value of castor il in breaking up fall and winter tolds, but most people have found it too hard to take Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil does away with this only objection. It is pure, simple castor oil without taste or odor. Nothing is added; nothing good taken out.

cer Kellogg & Sons of Buffalo have discovered a secret that had evaded chemists for 3000 years.
Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil works better than the old evil-tasting, evil-smelling kind. It operates pleasantly, without griping, and does not upset the stomach. Children take it easily, Do not confuse Keilogg's Tasteless Castor Oil with prepared, mixed or flavored castor oils. It is the only true, pure, tasteless kind. Sold in all drug stores, not in bulk, but in 25c and 50c sizes. The public is protected by the trade mark—a green castor leaf, bearing the signature—Kellogg's. GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. William Simmons Given Surprise Reception at Their Home in Central Village-Long Well Known in Eastern Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. William Simmons of Central Village informally celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Wednesday evening, Feb. 11, at their where he has lived ever since. He was home, and to their great astonishment the evening of their 50th anniversary 1889 and was reappointed for a second day turned into a surprise reception from 5 to 8 o'clock, when a large number was appointed an agent of the state ber of their friends caller to extend their good wishes and congratulations. William S. Simmons was born in Warwick, R. I., in 1839, and was the Warwick, R. I., in 1839, and was the second son of Davenport and Mary (Bonney) Simmons. At the age of 6 years his parents moved to Moosup, Ct. His education was gained in the district school of Moosup, the school in Bristol, R. I., in Plainfield academy, and later he was graduated from Schofield's Commercial college in Providence. While a young man in his 'teens he learned the tinsmith's trade in Bristol, R. I., which was the native town of his father.

He was an active member of the native town of his father.

He was an active member of the Fremont Marching club and later the Wideawakes. At the outbreak of the Civil war he enlisted from Plainfield in Company F, Eighth regiment, Conn. Vols. He re-enlisted in '63 and was promoted to second lieutenant, Company A, Fifth regiment, U. S. C. T., for bravery at Fort Harrison, being one of the first to plant the union colors on Fort Harrison. While detailed on brigade staff he was shot and lost his leg at Wilmington, N. C., Feb. 21, 1865.

After a period of recuperation at Moosup, he was employed in the United States armory at Springfield, Mass., for several years. He returned to Moosup and engaged in a retail dry goods and grocery business, having also the postmastership for seven years. Ill health in his family necessitated more or less time spent in Florida for the next few years.
